

“FRESH FROM HEAVEN”

JOHN 6:34-40

The crowd, having been miraculously fed on a mountain by Jesus, want more of this delicious dough. Served with fish, the multitude now find themselves hungry and desirous of another ready-to-eat meal. And that is the necessary consequence of physical food: You always need more. But Jesus offers a meal that will sustain much longer than the last one.

PROVISIONS FROM THE BREAD OF LIFE

① _____ (6:35)

Jesus is the _____ of life and Jesus is the _____ of life (James 1:17).

Only Jesus can employ comprehensive statements (i.e. _____, _____).

② _____ (6:36)

The multitude was privileged to see Him in person. Such a reality overwhelmed the Apostle John as he writes his first epistle.

_____ is usually _____, but not for this crowd.

③ _____ (6:37)

Notice the order: the Father gives the Son and then the Son gives us.

The seeking one, first drawn to the Son by the Father, will find an open door to the Savior.

④ _____ (6:38-39)

_____ to His Father was of utmost importance to the Son

Salvation is a _____. Salvation is a promise (Ephesians 1:13-14).

⑤ _____ (6:40)

Everyone ever created was made for _____.

The very best is yet to come as we look to the most excellent of places which the Son of God Himself is preparing for us.

CONCLUSION

Everyone has faith. For the atheist, he believes there is no god. For the agnostic, he believes you cannot know god. But for the believer, he believes in the infallible Word of God that was manifested by the sinless Son of God.
