

“LISTEN UP”

JOHN 11:1-16

Far more often than we care to admit, awkward moments find us – and we’d rather they didn’t! But a sovereign God has a plan and as the initial uncomfortableness passes, a significant point emerges.

LESSONS ON FAITH

① A Greater P _____ (11:1-2)

We can lose sight of this in the nitty gritty of life where we are reduced to the _____ around us or the _____ in front of us without regard for the Person Himself.

② A Greater P _____ (11:3-4)

We have the privilege each and every day, in each in every decision and choice and thought and action, to bring _____ to God.

③ A Greater P _____ (11:5)

Mary is intentionally _____ as the text moves past man – or woman – to the One who has come to save men and women from their sin.

Walking by _____ will always miss this perspective and even when we do walk by _____, we may sometimes also neglect it.

④ A Greater P _____ (11:6)

His ways are immeasurably greater than ours. He sees what we do not see and knows what we do not know.

⑤ A Greater P _____ (11:7-8)

Far too often we think the better _____ is the safer scene.

⑥ A Greater P _____ (11:9-10)

He’s not giving a devotional on _____ traveling but a primer on _____ walking.

because the light is not in him → A _____ of Jesus, who is the light of all men (1:4)

⑦ A Greater P _____ (11:11-14)

Though most avoid the topic of _____ at all costs, this becomes the platform upon which Jesus would be magnified.

CONCLUSION

For Thomas, the greater _____ is alongside the Savior – whether in life or in death. This is the very best place and the one you occupy when you believe on the Lord Jesus Christ.

What’s faith got to do with it? Everything. For without faith, you cannot please God.
