

“NO REPEATS NECESSARY”

Many things in life are repetitive. No sooner have you finished the last item on the “to do” list then a new list is handed to you with virtually the same items. Wouldn’t it be great if there were more items that you could do just one time and check it off completely? And yet, two thousand years, something extraordinary did occur ...

ONCE FOR ALL

① Christ _____ Our _____ (Hebrews 7:27)

Since the wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23), He took your _____ and the _____ you deserved and paid that _____ – once for all!

Born broken, we need more than a repair or a makeover; we need a complete _____.

② Christ _____ the _____ (Hebrews 9:12)

Sin separates man from God. The Son reunites man with God.

Jesus is the _____ (John 14:6) to the Father.

We can boldly approach the throne of grace and gain entry to the Father because of the Son (Heb. 4:16).

③ Christ _____ Our _____ (Hebrews 10:10)

What the _____ of earthly creatures could not accomplish, the _____ of the Son did.

According to God, all of our supposed righteousness as the world sees it is in fact stained and even worse, like filthy rags (Isaiah 64:6).

When the Father now looks on us as His followers, He does not see the stain of our _____ but the righteousness of His _____ (2 Cor. 5:21; Phil. 3:9).

CONCLUSION

During His final moments on that tree, Jesus voiced these perpetually-impacting words: “It is finished.” He paid the debt for our sins through the blood-soaked sacrifice of Himself. Friend, it is finished. There is absolutely nothing you can do to earn or secure a place for you in heaven. Jesus did it all – once for all!

Though skeptics have attempted to cast doubt about Christianity, the Bible and Christ, they have not and they cannot refute the fact of the resurrection. Beloved, the resurrection changed everything. Has it changed you?
