

“PERFECT HARMONY”

JOHN 10:15-21

The Father and the Son are one – one God. The scriptures deliver expert testimony of this authentic relationship (John 10:30; Hebrews 1:3; Colossians 1:15; Philippians 2:6). This impeccable alliance takes center stage in John 10 as Jesus has a table talk with the religious leaders about this topic. It’s not so well received by them but it should be by you.

UNITY OF THE HEAVENLY FATHER AND HIS SON

① In _____ (10:15-16)

Our vision is presently _____; our outlook is obscure (1 Corinthians 13:12).

But within the Godhead, they know each other completely. Nothing remains hidden to them or by them of each other. They exist fully in sync with each other on our behalf.

② In _____ (10:17)

It secures our _____ as the Father sent His Son (John 3:16) and His Son offered up His life (10:17).

Examine your actions in light of 1 Corinthians 13 love!

Thankfully, we do not have to fabricate godly love since it is unconditionally _____ by God (Romans 5:5). Just open up the valve and let it flow.

③ In _____ (10:18)

There is no tripping over each other or duplication of effort. On the contrary, they _____ flawlessly together.

They’re fused together and fully committed to the plan, whether that’s creation (Genesis 1:26), salvation (John 3:16), prayer (John 16:23), assurance (John 10:28-29), baptism (Matthew 28:19) or heaven (Revelation 22:3)

The trinity can best be understood as ____-_____.

CONCLUSION

Amongst mankind, we have distinctive opinions with diverse goals and divergent strategies and differing outcomes. Not so with God the Father and God the Son who display perfect unity.

Be grateful that this union among the Father and Son intersects your life in many ways every day!
