

“SPREAD THE WORD!”

JOHN 1:35-42

You can catch a lot of things – some good and some not so good. You really should want others to catch your transmittable transformation. You can greatly influence others toward the Lord ... or away from Him!

THE MARKS OF CONTAGIOUS CHRISTIANITY

① _____ (1:35)

_____ or _____ doesn't generally stoke the fire of Christianity and yet too many are too eager to pursue this pathway!

② _____ (1:36)

Unfortunately, the ugly stepsister of _____ tends to distort this and turn the attention inward.

John didn't need 20/20 hindsight because his vision was presently _____ into Jesus.

③ _____ (1:37)

He wasn't afraid to _____ his followers to the One who came to _____ His life for him!

④ _____ (1:38)

We desperately need to be more _____ in the work of the ministry.

⑤ _____ (1:39)

We can become far too programmed in our lifestyle which eats up our _____ and limits the hours of our life we are open to others.

The greatest single commodity you can give someone else is your _____.

⑥ _____ (1:40-41)

We are called to seek and find the spiritually sick. We cannot _____ them but we know the _____ for them. It is not a product but a person.

⑦ _____ (1:42)

It doesn't end at salvation but only continues throughout our lives as believers in Christ. Or at least it should.

The “you” of _____ should not be the same “you” of now!

CONCLUSION

Christianity comes in all shapes and sizes and colors. What does yours look like? What part in God's grand narrative do you play? There's a number of parts you really don't want to imitate!

The early disciples exercised contagious Christianity and it's what we need to return to if we desire to see God use us to the fullest measure. God turned this world upside down through these twelve disciples. Imagine what He could do through a number much larger than that today!
