

“THAT WAS AMAZING!”

RUTH 2:1-7

The Governor of governors and Architect of the world doesn't sit passively by while the world seemingly spins out of control. Instead, He is up close and in person and actively engaged in every detail of your life, no matter how many mundane moments fill your day. And guess what? He does as He pleases and everything He does is absolutely perfect.

SOVEREIGNTY MEETS SOCIETY

① Absolute Best S _____ (1:22)

They had arrived just in time for the _____ harvest and one they themselves were in great need of.

② Absolute Best S _____ (2:1)

Naomi, in the _____, is linked with a relative who's in the _____. She was insolvent and he was solvent.

The _____ in that society have been stripped from her life. But the “God who sees” looks upon Naomi's precarious predicament and lovingly inserts a _____ into the equation by the name of Boaz.

Here was a relative, a kinsman, someone close to Naomi. Sadly, we sometimes _____ such people and in so doing, may tend to forget the blessing they are to us.

③ Absolute Best S _____ (2:2-3)

If there is no God then what you are left with are random occurrences and happenstance events.

These are not _____ but the sovereign working of the King of kings!

④ Absolute Best S _____ (2:4-7)

Notice the character of Ruth.

1. She asks p _____.
2. She asks p _____.
3. She asks p _____.
4. She asks p _____.

Her attitude from within shows in her outward actions, despite all the “ _____ ” she could have clung to.

CONCLUSION

What God does is flawless and spotless, even if we can't quite wrap our mind around it or see clearly due to the obstructed view before us. We may not understand, we may not comprehend what He's up to, but we can trust that He knows exactly what He is doing and it will ultimately be for His glory and our benefit.

A _____ choice, an attitude of submission, is what our Lord looks for. Not our will be done, but His will be done. But if you are resisting His Word and thus refusing His way, then you are likely _____ His movement.
