

“WHAT’S THE EVIDENCE?”

LUKE 10:25-37 (Part 2)

If the traffic light is our directional and represents salvation, this lawyer is parked at the red light. But a very different man, the Good Samaritan, passes through that same traffic light, which is green for him. What color is the light you are facing at this intersection of eternal life?

GREEN LIGHTS OF SALVATION

Have you ever considered the parallels between this certain man and a certain _____?

1. He _____ among thieves (Mark 15:27).
2. He was _____ of clothes (Mt. 27:35).
3. He was _____ with blows (Mt. 27:26).
4. He was _____ half dead (Isa. 52:14).
5. He was _____ by prominent Jews (Lk. 23:11,35).
6. He was _____ by a Gentile (John 4:29).

① Exercises C _____ (10:33a)

He draws near to one who likely despised Him. How? Through _____ (Romans 5:5,8). Is your faucet on?

② Expresses C _____ (10:33b)

He had compassion on this man. This word occurs twelve times in the three gospels and every time it references Jesus – _____ !

③ Extends C _____ (10:34)

He treats him better than a brother.

1. He n _____ the man.
2. He n _____ the man.
3. He n _____ the man.
4. He n _____ the man.

④ Exceeds C _____ (10:35)

He sacrifices _____ days of wages and assumes any additional expenses that might be incurred for this stranger. Would you?

CONCLUSION

Jesus gives opportunity for this lawyer to move out of the starting blocks as he sits at the red light of salvation. Unfortunately, self remains enthroned as pride continues to wrap itself around this man. He chooses not to identify his neighbor and thus closes the invitation to eternal life. He remains at the red light, lost and still unrepentant.

What does it take to be saved?

_____ that you are a sinner.

_____ that Jesus is the Son of the living God and Savior of the world.

_____ with your mouth this Lord Jesus as you call on Him to save you.