

“WHAT DO I SAY?”

JOHN 6:41-48

If anyone could polarize an audience and surface the rawest emotions, it was Jesus. Sooner than later, one knew where He stood with the Savior. Not every conversation He had overflowed in fellowship and merriment. Yet the hostility of man does not deter His ministry.

THE MISTAKEN SPIRITUAL VIEWS OF MAN

① Jesus Was _____ a _____! (6:42)

Come down from heaven → His _____!

Not only could they _____ Jesus up close and in person, they could look to the Scriptures and _____ every single claim.

Very God of very God stood right in front of their very eyes!

② I'll Give My _____ to _____ Some Day! (6:44a)

Salvation is not your _____ to Him but His _____ to you.

Such a declaration:

1. underestimates your desire for _____.
2. presumes you will have a _____ time.
3. assumes God awaits your _____ to be done.
4. supposes you have something _____ offering.

③ You _____ and That's It! (6:44b)

In very clear and certain terms, there will be a future resurrection of the righteous. There will also be one for those who have not _____ in Jesus Christ (Matthew 25:46).

Because God breathed into man the breath of life (Genesis 2:7), man has a _____, one that lives on.

If there was nothing beyond the _____, why would the Bible continually address the abode of heaven and the abode of hell?

④ _____ Is Going to _____! (6:45)

Only those who both _____ and _____ will come to Him.

“learned” (verb) → “_____” (noun)

Only true believers will truly come to Him.

CONCLUSION

We live in a skeptical age where personal experiences and proclamations seem to carry more clout, especially as we veer further and further away from the Bible.

Any movement away from this anchor will only leave man guessing, speculating, theorizing and postulating his own clouded subjectivity.

The answer has always been the same: Jesus. Embrace the gospel of Jesus.
