

“YOU’RE SO BRIGHT!”

JOHN 10:22-30

A change in the background can impact what’s in the foreground. A dismal, dark backdrop surrounds Jesus as the unbelieving stand before Him. So it will be for all believers. What will you say? What will you do when that happens?

HOW TO SHINE AS LIGHT

① The _____ (10:27)

A. C _____

More than hearing His voice; we must also embrace it. That involves agreement with His communication.

Either you _____ His Word completely or you simply do not _____ His Word.

B. C _____

He really does know you.

† your _____ before you think them (Mt. 6:8)

† your _____ before you take them (Ps. 37:23)

† your first and your last _____ (Job 14:5)

† the _____ that roll down your cheek (Ps. 56:8)

† _____ anyone else knew you (Jer. 1:5)

C. C _____

This is called the _____ of the saints. That is, a true believer will truly continue to follow Christ.

The opposite is also very true: a _____ convert will not (1 John 2:19).

His _____ secured our salvation (Romans 5:19) and yet, our _____ demonstrates our continuation of what He’s called us to do.

② The _____ (10:28-30)

A. Re _____ (10:28a)

Eternal life cancels eternal death. In Christ, you will never _____ die.

Fused together, believers will never ever perish, never ever be lost, and never ever be destroyed.

B. Re _____ (10:28b-29)

Far more effective than any adhesive on the market, nothing can ever break the bond you have with Jesus.

That should squelch any _____ we may have about the permanence of our relationship with the Savior.

C. Re _____ (10:30)

CONCLUSION

Good fruit always abounds when you have a good root. Today, are you truly rooted in Him or are you still living in your own strength, wisdom and resources?

As the days grow darker, it allows something incredible to showcase itself. So go make a difference.
